Dr. Rollins can be heard in Las Vegas for one day only. He needs no sensational features to hold his audience. His strength of personality, logical thinking and beauty of language do that. He speaks at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. tomorrow in the Methodist church.

Mrs. L. S. Slocum, wife of a Kansas newspaper man, who left for her home this week, after a visit in Las Vegas, was the indirect cause of a serious accident which befell her husband. Mr. Slocum had gone from his home in Corning, Kan., to Kansas City to meet his wife, and when in the act of boarding an electric car for the Union depot, he slipped and fell, fracturing his left ankle. He went to the hospital instead of to the train.
